A SPIRIT OF DARKNESS.

Sacrilegious Ceromonies Interrupted by a Demoniacal Apparition.

(Ohio Press.)

PINE GROVE April 15.—An aged man and woman, husband and wife, keep a little hotel in a valley near this place. At the foot of the mountain live many colliers with their wives and children. Almost every evening it has been the custom of these to assemble in the little tavern and pass the time in imbibing copious draughts of brandy and whiskey. Here, with their wives and daughters, it has been the habit of the grimy miners to meet on Saturday nights and indulge in weird and fantastic dances, infuriated in their motions by the influence of the fiery liquids. These debauches it was the usual custom to continue far into Sunday morning.

Not far from this tavern there is a small church in which, during last winter, revival meetings were held, and many of the inhabitants of the valley turned from their worldly pursuits and devoted their attention to their spiritual welfare. Impressed by the earnest exhortation of devout clergymen, the worldlings forsook the tavern and its hilarious methods. Many of these people were customers of the landlord of the little tavern. He was vexed by the loss of his bibulous clients, and after consultation with friends he resolved to institute a series of protracted meetings in his bar-room.

To-night a large assembly of men and women gathered there to hold a mock revival. With the rude sound of clinking glasses and deep blasphemy the meeting was organized. Clarence Tellming, a young man with sharp feature and a deep bass voice, volunteered to act as parson. He led his unruly congregation in a hymn, and as the last verse ended in a prolonged howl he ordered a bench to be placed in front of the table behind which he stood, and in grandiloquent terms exhorted all who felt moved by the spirit to step forward. Five or six men and women knelt down at the bench, and, with loud groans and impious phrases, imitated the penitents at the little church's revival. Then, one by one, they arose and besought the leader of the sacriligious performance to accept them as flock of his fold. At this stage of the cruel work the aged tavern keeper, shaking with the weight of many years, held up a demijohn of brandy, calling out: "Here is the holy wine, partake of the sacrament."

A cold rush of air surged through the hot room as the door of the den was opened. With noiseless footstep a stranger entered. With one accord the blasphemous merry-makers fell back astounded. His breast arms and legs were covered with long, coarse hair. His eyes, set in deep sockets, flashed forth a red, luminous lustre, and his lips parted in a sneer, displaying long glittering tusks. Too frightened at first to move, the assembly gazed with awed eyes upon the figure. In his hand he held a small book, and in a gentle, insinuating voice, he made them write therein their names. In a moment a wild break was made and the motley crowd fled from the spot. One of the men who was present, but who did not take any active part in the performance, and who is your correspondent's informant, remained after the others had fled. He states that the unnatural figure paced backwards and forwards in the narrow confines of the room, and then, emptying the contents of the brandy demijohn down his throat, stepped to the middle of the room, and, with a demoniacal laugh, dematerialized and vanished away.

So unlikely seemed the truth of this statement and the apparition, that some of the other persons have been interviewed to night, and, although the statements are contradictory in some minor details, all those who have been seen agree in the most important particulars.

A REMARKABLE FACT.

It is a remarkable fact that W. A. Edgers, of Frankville, who was so far gone with liver and kidney complaint that his life was despaired of, was cured with four bottles of Burdock Blood Bitters. At one time he lay a fortnight without an operation of the bowels. (36)

POPULARITY.

Why they are popular. The reason that National Pills are so universally popular is because they are certain in their action, mild and painless in their operation, and never leave the bowels constipated. They are sugar-coated, and contain no mineral poison. (35)

DON'T YOU FORGET IT—that on feeling an aching pain in the hollow of your back to go to your Druggist and get DR. VAN BUREN'S KIDNEY CURE. It will remove the trouble in a few doses. d1wk

A Determined Jury.

Nothing is truer than the maxim that great events turn upon small hinges. Look well to the small things of life, gentle reader, for upon them may depend the greater ones. These wholesome reflections are inspired by an incident of a murder trial, at Droville, last week, says the San Francisco Post. When the jury retired for consultation the foreman announced that the prisoner had conveyed to him the fact that he had only $10 left to "put up."

"Ten dollars!" exclaimed one of the twelve indignantly. "What does the fellow take us for? We are willing enough to do the fair thing, heaven knows, but $10—I call that rubbing it in!"

"If he had only made it a dollar apiece!" snorted another.

"I tell you what it is, gentlemen," said the foreman, solemnly, "if this sort of thing keeps on they'll be having Chinese jurymen next, so the lawyers will get it all. There's little enough money in our profession now. It's about time we made an example of some. S'posen we hang this man!"

And they did!

An Octogenarian Fraud.

TORONTO, April 6.—A widow aged residing in Toronto, advertised for a husband. James Robertson, aged 79, applied, and claimed that he was a San Francisco millionaire. A match was made, and the ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Stratton, of Buffalo. While staying at the clergyman's house, Robertson gave his wife a cheque for $19,000 and sent her back to Toronto where she remained for two weeks. On her return he gave her a check for $20,000, but afterwards stole it from her, borrowed the minister's seal coat, cap and gold-headed cane, and $20, and levanted, having previously promised Mr. Stratton's brother a position on the Union Pacific at an enormous salary. Robertson was captured near Hamilton, and sentenced to six months in gaol.

Daily Colonist.

FRIDAY MORNING, MAY 18TH, 1883.

L. P. FISHER, Advertising Agent, 21 Merchants Exchange, San Francisco, is authorised to receive advertisements for the columns of this paper.

THE POPE'S CIRCULAR.

His Holiness the Pope has taken cognizance of the pronencss of the Irish clergy to dabble in politics by issuing a circular addressed to the bishops. The circular condemns the Parnell subscription and calls on the clergy to refrain from promoting that "grand potlatch" among their flocks. Reference is further made to the prevalence of crime which the bishops and those under them are admonished to endeavor to diminish by example and precept. The position taken by his holiness is said to have been advised by Lord Errington, who has been some time in Rome. The circular raises a distinct issue between the church and the fenian body. No fenian who may persist in his illegal course after the promulgation of the bull can hope for favor; and if, as was asserted in the address presented to Bishop Brondell in this city the other day, Catholics regard the "command that comes from Rome as the voice, the command of God," the faithful must retire at once from the ranks of the fenian order.

A MAIL INCONVENIENCE.

Since the ocean steamers have begun to make weekly trips to this port it is observed that the trans-Sound service of Eastern, California and English letter mails has ceased. Late California papers came through yesterday; but not one letter. This has been the experience of the past two weeks. The mails accumulate at San Francisco instead of being dispatched by overland stage or by Portland steamer. This new arrangement has been made without the knowledge of the Canadian postal authorities, and it ought not to continue without remonstrance. There is really no reason why the former system of a mail three times a week should not be resumed unless the U.S. mail carriers object to transport the mails overland, although by treaty they are compelled to do so. It is hoped that Mr. Wallace will take steps to restore the service to its former state of efficiency.

DOMINION SUPPLEMENTARIES.

The Dominion supplementary estimates reached the house on the 16th. Several important items affecting British Columbia were sent down and, of course, will be voted. No sum is asked for the island railway and dry dock; but it is expected those matters will be dealt with in an act to be introduced to-day.

Canada.

WINNIPEG, May 14.—An excitement was created here to-day by the news of a fire at the village of Qu'Appelle, 30 miles west, on the Canada Pacific railway. Private telegrams announce that the greater portion of the town is burned, together with the depot and the new dominion government immigration buildings. In the latter were settlers' effects piled to the roof. All were consumed. Besides the baggage, the damage is estimated at $100,000, with only nominal insurance.

HAMILTON, May 15.—The Hamilton Presbytery to-day discussed the case of Rev. Walker of Benbrook, Ontario, who who wrote a letter to the Glasgow Herald, making strong statements disparaging Canada's climate and the country as a field for immigration. The Presbytery considered Walker's statement untrue, and caused a letter to be written the Herald in contradiction of Walker's letter. The letter was before the presbytery and cited facts to show that he had made no misstatements. The letter of the ministers of the presbytery sent to the Herald condemning Walker was confirmed. Walker announced his intention to appeal to the synod.

OTTAWA, May 15.—A deputation representing temperance societies are in the city, in reference to the new license act now before parliament. Counter deputations representing the liquor traffic are also here to oppose the bill. Both had an interview with the governor.

It is said that Sir John Macdonald has received several threatening letters from New York dynamiters.

ST. CATHERINES, May 15.—It is rumored that dynamite fiends are intending to damage the Welland Canal. Steps have been taken to protect the exposed point.

WINNIPEG, May 16.—Reports sent out by special correspondents regarding small pox at St. Boniface are greatly exaggerated. Authorities state there is only one case in town, and that is in the hospital. Two children died day before yesterday and two other persons who were reported ill a month ago have now recovered. Two or three houses are quarantined, owing to the fact that cases did formerly exist. The foregoing statement is based upon the report of physicians attached to the health commission. The small pox hospital is so arranged that nurses are not allowed to go to the city for necessary supplies, which are furnished by messengers, who are not allowed to enter the building.

Considerable excitement exists over the disappearance of Wm Kittson, son of Commodore Kittson, of St. Paul, who was stricken down with the disease a few days ago, and taken to the hospital at Winnipeg. He escaped while the nurse was temporarily absent from the room. He was delirious when he escaped. Men with horses have been scouring the prairie all day, but the search was in vain. It is believed he is dead, as there were but little hopes of recovery at any rate. Only one other case is in the city hospital. The city offered $100 reward for the recovery of the body of Kittson, dead or alive.

OTTAWA, May 16.—Official advices from Fort Walsh up to Friday represent the Crees perfectly quiet and no trouble apprehended.

SULLIVAN VICTORIOUS.

He Uses up the English Slugger, Mitchell, in Three Rounds.

NEW YORK, May 15.—Sullivan won the fight last night. The ceremonies opened at 8:30 by sparring between Pete McCoy and Bob Mullany. Then came a set-to between John Reilly and Steve Taylor, Jim Kelly and Jerry Murry, and others. The crowd becoming impatient, loud calls were made for Sullivan and Mitchell. There was great applause when Sullivan appeared upon the stage in fighting costume. Mitchell was also warmly applauded. Before time was called Captain Williams cautioned the two men that the work was earnest from the start. Sullivan went viciously at Mitchell, and the latter, in getting out of his way fell twice, watching his opportunity, he got in a quick blow and Sullivan went down; but he got up and closed with Mitchell, and there was close fighting uhtil time was called and the men ordered to break. In his corner Mitchell looked fresh, smiling and confident, while the breathing of Sullivan was labored, plainly showing want of condition.

The second round was very spirited. Mitchell danced around Sullivan and then closing suddenly upon him drove him back upon the ropes. Sullivan got up and pursued the Englishman with caution, evidently bent upon delivering a knock-down blow. He caught Mitchell square in the face and the Englishman went down, but got up quickly and after a sharp half minute's fighting Sullivan threw him hard against the ropes. He sprang lightly to his feet, was knocked down again and got up dazed. Sullivan pressed him and drove him to the ropes again and threw him clear over them, the Englishman falling head down and his feet sticking straight up in the air.

In the third round excitement was intense. Mitchell got in some sharp body blows on Sullivan, but the latter delivered his blow with great directness and force, and the Englishman was twice knocked down. The third time he rose quite groggy, when Captain Williams rushed upon the stage and ordered the fight stopped. There was much confusion for a few minutes, but when order was restored both men removed their gloves, shook hands and were presented with bouquets, and Sullivan was officially declared winner of the match. Mitchell was voted a game and clever boxer, but too light to cope with a heavy-weight like Sullivan. The winner took 60 per cent. and the loser 40 per cent. of the gate receipts, which amounted to about $10,000.

LATEST INDIAN NEWS.

Nothing Heard from Crook—Ranchmen and Prospectors seek Safety in Camps.

EL PASO, Texas, May 15.—The Times has the following from Guadaloupe cañon by way of Deming, through its special reporter at headquarters, Guadaloupe cañon, Arizona, May 10: From this point to Nogale, and for a corresponding distance east, the various camps and pickets of the command have been scouting ever since the first of the month, when General Crook crossed the line into Mexico. Crook is supposed to be very near the "hornet's nest" by this time It is fair to suppose that the Mexican allies have joined his command.

KEEPING CLOSE TO CAMPS.

Isolated ranchers and prospectors hereabouts are keeping close to the various camps for fear of being attacked by the Chirachuas, who endeavor to escape from their present environment and make their way north. There are many vague rumors of an engagement having already taken place; but until official dispatches arrive from Crook no credence should be given these reports, for unless couriers from his command are given as means of information it is impossible for news to get from this point to civilization.

A DESOLATE SCENE.

The ruins of prosperous towns, rich missions and mines are all around us. The entire country is desolate and uninhabited. Grass has grown waist high over old roads skirting northern Sonora, and prospectors and ranchmen are hovering around camps, anxiously awaiting the time when it will be safe for them to enter the Sierra Madres.

Colonel Biddle's headquarters are established at Silver creek, near the boundary, from which point scouting east and west have been kept up. Glass' troops have been as far east as the New Mexican line, and the whole of Baird's command covers the country to the westward. Doubts have been expressed as to the fidelity of Indian scouts. There is said to be a lukewarmness among the scouts which was not expected when the command left Wilcox.

Dominion Supplementary Estimates.

IMPORTANT VOTES FOR BRITISH COLUMBIA.

The "Thrasher" Constitutional Case.

[Exclusive to The Colonist.]

OTTAWA, Ont., May 17, 1883.

In supplementary estimates the following are for British Columbia: Immigration agent, Victoria, and contingencies, $1500; penitentiary, $40,000; Nanaimo custom-house and postoffice, $2000; improvement of Cowichan, Courtenay and Lillooet rivers, $2500; telegraph from New Westminster to Ladner's landing, $1500; two new Indian agents, $2400, increase excise officers' salaries, $500.

Constitutional question re Thrasher, was argued to-day. Christopher Robinson and Theodore Davie were employed by the Dominion government, and James Bethune and Kingsford by the local government. Argument continues to-morrow. Decision probably on the 20th of June.

N. SHAKESPEARE.

Exploration of Alaska.

About the 1st of June Lieut. Frederick Schwatka will start for Alaska to make an exploration of a portion of that territory in the interests of the government. He has secured a fine outfit of hunting and fishing gear including the latest pattern of repeating rifles and a fine assortment of hooks, lines, flies and artificial baits of the most killing style. Lieut. Schwatka will be accompanied by Assistant Surgeon George F. Wilson, several soldiers and a number of Indians, who will be engaged in Alaska. The party will start from Chilcat across the country to the upper waters of the Yukon river, and explore that stream to its mouth.

Prorogation.

It is said that the Ottawa parliament will not be prorogued before the 25th and, perhaps, not even on that date, the liquor license question and the British Columbia settlement being expected to consume three or four days in discussion.

THE YOSEMITE.—Yesterday Capt. Irving returned from San Francisco via Puget Sound. During his visit arrangements were made by him for the purchase of the Yosemite, a fine steamer that used to ply on the Sacramento river, the purchase to be completed if her boilers are found satisfactory. The cost of the boat is stated to be $50,000 and she will be placed on the ways at San Francisco and overhauled before she comes up. She has the reputation of being a fast boat and will be placed on the route between Port Haney and Victoria, making the trip both ways in one day.

THE STEAMER SIR JAMES DOUGLAS.—The repairs to the Dominion steamer Sir James Douglas are fast approaching completion, and even her coppering is almost completed and extends quite up to the water line. She may possibly be launched from Laing's ways either the end of this week or beginning of next. The vessel is now almost a new one and is much improved by her transformation, while her increased accommodation will render her far more serviceable.

THE WHARF AT SHOAL POINT.—Considerable progress has been made with this wharf, and it is now extended out nearly the whole of its length, which is 600 feet. More than two-thirds of the distance in which piles and joists are in position, has been planked over, and the surface presents a fine esplanade running seaward. The wonder is when the limited accommodation of the harbor is considered, the idea was not carried out before when it was first projected.

REWARD.—The government offer a reward of $500 for the apprehension of the persons concerned in the late murderous outrage near Lytton. The Standard will say that this is evidence that the government are in favor of Chinese cheap labor.

THE GRAPPLER INVESTIGATION.—The investigation into the causes of the Grappler disaster, ordered by the Dominion government, is being held from day to day by Capt. Revely and will probably continue some days longer.

CONTRACT AWARDED.—The contract for building four punts for the dredger has been awarded to Messrs. Walter Walker and Colvin.

APPOINTMENT.—It is rumored that Mr. Gordon Grant has been appointed inspector of boilers and engines at a salary of $150 a month.

ASHORE.—A portion of a raft of logs which was on its way to Sayward's mill, Victoria, is reported ashore at James Island.

Railway Notes.

NEW YORK, May 16.—The Wall street circular says: Oregon Transcontinental and Union Pacific have been the weakest stocks in the market and the selling in both instances is reputed for inside account. The Vanderbilt road is said to be prepared to make a fight unless it gets a larger percentage of the freight from St. Louis to the seaboard. This would make trouble in the entire Trunk line pool system.

Villard's return did not inspire the confidence his friends expected for a raid was made on Oregon Transcontinental. The Canadian Pacific was listed on London exchange yesterday.

THE ROCK BAY SAWMILL.—Some time since a furnace for the purpose of burning edgings and other refuse was erected by Mr. Sayward at the Rock Bay sawmill, as the smoke from burning in the open air was found very unpleasant in the locality. The smoke stack is 70 feet high and four feet square inside and there is a furnace 18 feet by 20 feet extending from it lined with fire brick. At first the draught was found two strong, but some alterations have been made to moderate this peculiarity.

A CANDIDATE for Congress met Uncle Mose in Louisville, and said to him: "Be sure and come to the ward meeting to-night, and bring your neighbors with you." Municipal Police Court.

(Before Hon. A. E. Pemberton.)

THURSDAY, May 17.

P. T. Johnston was charged with unlawfully obstructing the sidewalk on Fort street.

Mr. Johnston said he had a number of casks and was packing them, but he could not get them all away at once.

Constable Hough said on Monday last he notified Mr. Johnson to remove some straw and packing cases from the sidewalk, with which he had failed to comply.

Supt. O'Connor said he did not press for any penalty, but the barrels were not only an obstruction but dangerous, as they were filled with hay and straw, and the notice to remove them had been disregarded.

His Honor said he was surprised that casks filled with straw should have been left in such a manner, as they might easily have been set on fire.

He would dismiss the case without any penalty, and he hoped it would be a warning to others.

ASSAULT.

Charles McGee was charged with assaulting James Hastings, 1st officer on board the Jesse Osborne.

The prisoner said he went into the mate's room after keeping watch all night to see what time it was, and the mate was annoyed, and they had some words, and hence the difficulty.

The plaintiff stated that the man came into his room several times and was very annoying, and at last assaulted him, and although on watch, he was in liquor. He had overlooked a good deal, but now he considered the man had set him at defiance and if not checked his example would be followed by others.

His Honor fined the prisoner $10 or two months' imprisonment.

THE steamer Sardonyx, which was to have sailed for the north last evening, will not sail till to-morrow evening, as after the alterations which have been made in her, especially the addition of another deck, she will have to be remeasured by the custom house authorities and otherwise inspected.

LETTERS await "A. M." and "B. W." at this office.

"THE LAYING ON OF HANDS"

A Man who Cures by Faith Alone.

NEW YORK, April 17.—The "healing pastor," the Rev. F. Monck, is being visited by nearly all the afflicted of Brooklyn, N. Y., and he has made some surprising cures. A man who had rheumatism in his arms so that he was unable to raise his head above his shoulder stood up for treatment on Sunday evening during the meeting in Academy of Music. The pastor struck the arm and raised it high in the air, saying as he did so, "In the name of Jesus, rheumatism leave this man." The man immediately lifted his arm above his head and said "I am cured." Many in the audience laughed at the suddenness of this miraculous cure. They laughed again when the next person who said he was deaf failed to acknowledge a cure after the doctor had blown into his ear. Monck turned angrily on the spectators and said, "It is not necessary for you in the gallery to make fools of yourselves by laughing. It is necessary for this man to submit to a second treatment. Afterward he pressed the eyes and chests and limbs of the rest of the crowd, and one after another of them acknowledged that he had been relieved instantly. Several rose in the audience and said they had been cured by the laying on of hands earlier in the proceedings. Miss Jackson stood up on the stage and said she was cured of gastric fever. Mrs. Gange declared she had been cured of rheumatism. A man who said he was Stephen Hanson, told how the doctor had cured his wife of a fever when she was on her deathbed by the use of a handkerchief which the doctor had given him. The doctor explained that these handkerchiefs—which he gives away to some and sells to others, sometimes as high as $10 each—were rendered effective by his touching them. "The cure doesn't depend on your faith," he said. "It's not essential that you should believe in a cure to be cured. It is I who have the faith. But I am only a cipher. It is Christ who is the healer." Then he asked the audience to pray in silence for ten seconds, while he himself silently prayed, kneeling at the table. Mr. Monck is an Englishman, with a long dark beard and moustache, and hair that falls to his shoulders. His forearms are noticeably short.

The Nose Test.

West Indians have a curious test for telling whether a person has negro blood in his veins. It is called the nose test. The negro has no division in the gristle or cartilaginous portion of his nose, such as all of pure white blood can feel at its tip with the end of the finger. This is the last thing to yield to the white accession. Any negro blood is marked with a nose the gristle of which is undivided, and the object of putting this paragraph in is to prove that no person will read it through without touching the finger to the nose.

EUROPE.

LONDON, May 15.—The Times says the particulars of an attempt to destroy a steamer plying between Liverpool and New York have just leaked out at the former place. It appears that just before the vessel left Liverpool for New York on her last voyage, having on board a number of immigrants, a man gave the steward a box and requested him as a favor to convey it to New York. The steward's suspicions were aroused, and he consulted the captain, who ordered the box opened. This was done in the presence of the captain and officers and the box found to contain an infernal machine. The contents were thrown overboard, but the box itself was retained, and a note made of the address upon the box. The fact of this discovery was not made known publicly in New York on the vessel's arrival there, but the British consul-general in that city was notified of it. The steamer has just returned to Mersey from New York.

LONDON, May 15.—The Standard has advices from Madagascar stating that war preparations in the interior are greater than those on the coast. A majority of the Saka Lavas joined the Sovas in defense of their independence. The French are apparently loth to commence operations, their forces being inadequate to cope with the natives.

PARIS, May 15.—A dispatch from Rome to the Journal Catholicque says the pope has addressed a strangely worded letter to Irish bishops, desiring them to forbid the clergy from participating in political movements or encouraging subscriptions in aid of the present movement.

LONDON, May 15.—The Times says: "In variety and completeness of illustration the United States' collection at the fisheries exhibition is not surpassed by any foreign contributors."

CASTLE ISLAND, May 15.—Several shots were fired from ambush at a man here on Sunday, and he was severely wounded. The affair is much commented on and considerable alarm was caused, as it was hoped that such deliberate outrages had been checked.

ROME, May 14.—A document sent by the vatican to bishops of Ireland, in referring to the fund being raised for Parnell, says it is intolerable that a priest, much more a bishop, should promote such an object. The document condemns all collections which may be employed as a means of exciting a rebellion against the laws.

ROME, May 15.—The pope in his circular to Irish bishops, says: "Whatever Parnell's object may be, his followers have often adopted a course openly against the rules. In the pope's letter to Cardinal McCabe instructions were sent the bishops, which were accepted at a meeting in Dublin. While it is right for the Irish to seek redress from their grievances and strive for their rights, they should at the same time seek God's justice and remember that wickedness is illegal means of furthering even a just cause. It is the duty of the clergy to curb the excited feelings of the people and urge the justice of moderation. The clergy are not permitted to depart from these rules and join movements inconsistent with them. Collections to relieve distress are allowed, but subscriptions to inflame popular passion is condemned. The clergy must hold aloof when it is plain that by such movements hatred and dissension are aroused, or distinguished persons insulted, and when crime and murderers go unsecured, and when patriotism is measured by the amount subscribed; for the people are thereby intimidated. Therefore the Parnell fund is disapproved, and no clergyman should recommend subscriptions therto or promote it."

It is stated that Archbishop Croke, on his return to Ireland, will visit Mecabe, and the latter will come here to confer with the pope as soon as his health will permit him to take the journey.

PARIS, May 15.—The Galois says: "At a meeting of the Suez Canal Company, to be held in June, proposals will be made to construct a canal at a cost of 125,000,000 francs."

BERLIN, May 15.—Bismarck suffered greatly yesterday and almost severely to-day from neuralgia pain. He objects to go at present to Kissingen.

BERLIN, May 14.—It is semi-officially stated that the mission of Waddington here is to assure Germany of the continued pacific intentions of France.

BERLIN, May 14.—The treaty between Germany and Madagascar is based on the mutual recognition of the most favored nation. Germany has done or said nothing of offense to the sensibilities of France, but the Madagascar envoys consieder their mission a complete success.

SUEZ, May 15.—Vessels arriving from Bombay are quarantined here owing to the existence of cholera at that place.

DUBLIN, May 15.—The trial of Fitzharris, as accessory to the murder of Cavendish and Burke, began to-day.

LONDON, May 16.—The Times says the emigration scheme proposed by Canadian capitalists hangs fire because of the objections of Gladstone to the system of state aid. It says the cabinet will insist on the Canadian government becoming responsible for money loaned to further the scheme, probably thinking by that means to cause the project to be abandoned. There is reason to believe, however, that Canada will accept the responsibility.

BERLIN, May 16.—The German Gazette attempts to prove by statistics the danger of contracting trichinosis from American pork is sixty times greater than from German pork, and refers to the latest reports of sanitary officers at Chicago, Erie and Boston, and to publications in the New York Medical Journal to prove the correctness of its statement. The Gazette declares that the inspection of pork on its arrival at German ports has proved useless.

PARIS, May 16.—Six anarchists have been arrested for circulating seditious pamphlets among troops.

LONDON, May 16.—The head constable at Liverpool maintains rhe story of the discovery on a transatlantic steamer of an infernal machine is a hoax. The box only contained brick. The Times' correspondent at Liverpool, however, insists on the truth of the story, and declares the police are anxious,—they recognize the importance of the affair. The Liverpool Courier says it is positive that a dangerous machine was found on the steamer.

Turtous & Hadow, large speculators in American and Mexican stocks, have failed.

PARIS, May 16.—Accounts of the condition of the health of Count Chambord are conflicting. The Union declares he is well, while the Temps says he is seriously ill, and it is probable his friends are uneasy and endeavoring to conceal the seriousness of his condition from the public.

TRIESTE, May 16.—The Gazette reports Count Chambord dying.

DUBLIN, May 16.—The trial of Fitzharris, as an accessory after the fact to the murder of Cavendish and Burke, was concluded this morning. The jury returned a verdict of guilty against him, and he was sentenced to penal servitude for life.

Judge O'Brien, in passing sentence, said: "The crime of which you are convicted is nearly the same as murder. The deaths of Cavendish and Burke were mainly owing to your act in inducing Smith to point out the victims." The prisoner appeared stupefied at the sentence.

PARIS, May 16.—United States Minister Morton introduced to Prime Minister Ferry to-day a deputation bearing an address from the Boston convention, in which the French government was requested to introduce a bill to facilitate the dispatch of French art to the national exhibition to be held on the occasion of the centennial of the signing of a treaty for American independence. Ferry intimated that he would submit the matter to the council of ministers.

DUBLIN, May 16.—A meeting of the National land league was held to-day. Biggar, member of parliament, said anything from the pope should be received with respect, but at the same time the league should express its views in plain but inoffensive terms. Mayne, also a member of parliament, said he wished the people to take theology, and not politics from Rome.

Kennedy, member of parliament for Ennis, described the pope's circular as a shameful insult to the priests and people of Ireland.

The Freeman's Journal in commenting on the pope's circular to the Irish bishops, says: "His Holiness has been misled if not entirely deceived by emissaries of the British government, who know if the Parnell party remains unbroken it will hold the balance of power in the next parliament."

Eastern States.

ST. LOUIS, May 11.—Herr Most, the revolutionist, left this morning for Kansas City and St. Joseph. After working these towns sufficiently he will return to New York.

A correspondent at Washington lets in a little light upon the career of the agitator. He declares he is an impostor and traitor to the element he pretends to champion. This gentleman says he met certain officials of the Austrian government upon one occasion and deliberately made a bargain for a stipulated price, to be paid in money, to betray all the secrets of the workingmen's societies in Europe with which he was associated. His services as an informer were accepted, and he turned over to the government papers, documents and other information relative to the socialist party. A show was made of putting Most in prison to throw the public, and especially his party, off their guard and he was kept in jail five weeks and let go with his ill-gotten gold. It is alleged further that Most was not a high-priced villain, and did not charge much for his treachery.

NEW YORK, May 15.—Father Barry, of the church of Transfiguration society, which is moving for the expulsion of Chinese from Mott street, said to-day: "We have had no such Sunday for years in this neighborhood as the last. It was at least outwardly decent and orderly. We could get through the streets without being insulted, and the air was not made hideous by yells and loud talk that generally make Sunday here a pandemonium. So far we have attained the only object we had in beginning this agitation—outward decency and order. As for opium smoking, I don't feel able to hope that it will be suppressed."

The Tribune to-morrow will say: "It is the opinion of the society for the prevention of cruelty to children, of the police in the precinct and especially of Rev. Father Lynch, priest in charge of the church of Transfiguration, that the facts do not bear out the statements which have been made relative to opium dens. It is safe to assume that Father Lynch, at least, knows what he is talking about. He disapproves the action of his assistant, Father Barry, and the young men who are engaged with the latter in inspecting the exaggerated reports about the wickedness of Chinese in New York. He declares these heathens are no worse than many christians, and that the sensational stories given out of their corrupt practices are practically false.

NEW ORLEANS, May 15.—An inquiry from hon. W. Henry Smith, general agent of the associated press, was sent by courier from Mississippi City to Beauvoir this evening. Mrs. Jefferson Davis replied as follows: "Mr. Davis has had a severe attack of bronchitis, but is now better and is hoped is out of danger."

NEW YORK, May 15.—The British consul disclaims all knowledge regarding the cable report of an attempt to blow up an English steamship, as do also various steamship officials. The story generally is discredited.

JERSEY CITY, May 14.—The wife of Rev. E. L. Stoddard, rector of St. John's episcopal church of this city, was shot and killed to-day, in her home, 97 Summit avenue. Mrs. Stoddard was dusting the shelves of one of the closets. On one of the shelves lay a pistol, and she brushed the weapon off. The trigger struck the shelf below, the weapon was exploded, the ball striking her in the head, crashed through the skull and lodged in the brain She died a few minutes later. The rector and wife lived in handsome style in an elegant home on Summit avenue.

NEW YORK, May 14.—The newspapers describe a remarkable scene at the notorious Billy McGlory's den last evening, when it was occupied by Jerry McAuley, the converted prize fighter and founder of several missions in the lower haunts of the city. Six hundred persons were present, among them the notorious habitues of such places, as the "Widow Dunn," "Clara Morris," "Big Six," and others. Legends of the den still hung around the walls. West Allen opened the meeting. He said, "Billy McGlory pays for this meeting. We offered to put up for the use of the hall and lights, but Billy wouldn't have it. I've been coming here for a long time and have taken some of his best customers away, but he never grumbled. Bill is not a bad man

BUT HE IS IN A BAD BUSINESS,

And I hope with the help of God to burst it up, and I expect some day to see a pulpit in this hall, and Billy McAuley talking to the people. Now, I have got a good brother here who has come to talk to you. I mean Jerry McAuley. He will give it to you straight, for he is a straight man. Otherwise he wouldn't be here."

"Jesus, lover of my soul," was sung and then Jerry McAuley was introduced. Billy McGlory was not visible, but Andy Kelly said he was there.

"PRAYING KNOCKED IT OUT OF HIM,"

Says Kelly, and it affected me, too. I mean to go up to Jessup on Tuesday night and take a gang with me. McGlory's waiters during the service entered the room in a body, each wearing a white necktie and sat together where the speaker stood.

After considerable speaking and singing Allen said: "If you want the meeting to go on hold up your hands." The result satisfied Allen and he announced the speakers, men and women, and gave out hymns for an hour longer. Services will be held at the same place Sunday evening next, when many speakers have promised to be present.

CHICAGO, May 15.—A special report of the fight in the Indian territory last Saturday, twenty-five miles east of Laddo, says: Three hard characters named Carson, are alleged to have murdered, near Delaware bend, a short time ago two white men named Blinkensen and Hoddlinson, and an old negro named Willey. Last Saturday marshal Menshon, of Fort Smith, Ark., and constable Cutler, of Grayson county, Texas, attempted to arrest the Carsons. They showed fight and exchanged a dozen shots with the officers. Marshal Menshon was slightly wounded. All of the Carsons were killed except the father, who was released. The dead were left on the field unburned.

WASHINGTON, May 15.—The president has accepted the invitation to attend the exercises incident to the opening of the New York and Brooklyn bridge, on the 24th instant.

There is reason to believe that after all that has been said on the subject, the officials at the state department do not expect Great Britain will ask for the extradition of Walsh and Sheridan. It is understood the Gladstone government has had its attention called to the situation and comprehends its delicacy.

Something Inside a Pig.

Said Edward Everett once, "The common people will understand a speaker who understands himself and uses plain language." But some speakers seem to possess the incurable faculty of always shooting over the common people's heads. The story is told of a city minister, who, after preaching for a friend in the country, was told by the latter:

"You have given us a very good sermon, with one exception, and that is, you used some word our people don't understand."

The former thought the latter was certainly mistaken, and asked what single word he had used that all could not understand.

"Why," replied the other, "you said 'felicity' instead of 'happiness.' Now, all our people know what 'happiness' is, but a great many of them, I am sure, do not know the meaning of 'felicity.'"

As the preacher doubted this, the country minister said: "There comes comes one of our plain, simple farmers; we will ask him."

And as the farmer came up he said: "We were just speaking about a word—the word 'felicity;' can you tell us what is its meaning?"

"Why, yes," said the farmee; "certainly I know what 'felicity' is; it is something inside a pig, but I don't know exactly what!"

There's No Use Bucking Against Solid Facts.

A farmer came into a grocery store the other day and exhibited to the eyes of an admiring crowd an enormous egg, about six inches long, which he avowed to have been laid by one of his own hens. He had it packed in cotton, and wouldn't allow anybody to handle it for fear of breaking the phenomenon. The groceryman examined it with the rest, and intending to chaff the countryman, said, "Pshaw! I've got something in the egg line that will beat that."

"I'll bet you five dollars you haven't," said the countryman, getting excited.

"Take it up," replied the groceryman, and going behind the counter he brought out a wire egg-beater. "There's something in the egg line that will beat it, I guess," said he, reaching out for the stakes.

"Hold on there," said the farmer, "let's see you beat it," and he handed it to the grocer. The latter held out his hand for it, but dropped it in surprise on the counter, where it broke two soup plates and a platter. It was of solid iron painted white.

"Some folks think they're darnation cute," muttered the farmer as he pocketed the stakes and lit out, "but 'tain't no use buckin' against the solid facts."

A GASCON officer, demanding his salary from the Minister of War, declared that he was in danger of dying with hunger. The Minister, who saw that his visage was full and ruddy, told him that his face contradicted his words. "Ah, sir," said he, "don't trust to that; that face is not mine; it belongs to my landlord, who has given me credit for a long time past."
